

CANPASS REMOTE AREA BORDER CROSSING (RABC) PERMIT

THE CANPASS RABC PERMIT IS VALID FOR THE FOLLOWING REMOTE AREAS:

- from Pigeon River through to and including Lake of the Woods
- the Canadian shore of Lake Superior
- Cockburn Island
- Sault Ste. Marie (upper lock system)
- Emerson West Lynne

The CANPASS RABC permit, allows the bearer to cross the border into Canada at the above remote areas without reporting to a port of entry, as long as imported goods are declared.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE TO APPLY FOR A CANPASS RABC PERMIT?

Canadian citizens, permanent residents of Canada, United States citizens and permanent residents of the United States are eligible to apply for a CANPASS RABC permit.

United States citizens and permanent residents must meet normal visitor legislative requirements, as described under the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act (IRPA), that is, be in good health, be law abiding and have sufficient funds for their stay in Canada. For more information on Immigration requirements for visitors to Canada, please consult the CIC Web site at www.cic.gc.ca.

Applicants may not qualify for a CANPASS RABC permit if they have been previously charged with a contravention of Canada Border Services Agency (CBSA) or Immigration legislation; if they have criminal convictions for which there has not been a pardon or, if they have provided false or incomplete information on the CANPASS RABC permit application.

PROGRAM CONDITIONS:

- CANPASS RABC permits are valid only for the remote areas listed above and may not be used to cross the border at any other location.
- Individuals crossing at any other location in Canada should consult our Web site at www.cbsa-asfc.gc.ca to learn about an alternate reporting program for your area.
- Individuals must have their CANPASS RABC permit in their possession when they cross the border into Canada at the remote areas identified above. Individuals who are not in possession of a CANPASS RABC permit, or whose permit has expired must enter at a port of entry. Verifications will be conducted periodically.
- CANPASS RABC permit holders entering to work in Canada must be in possession of a valid work permit where applicable under the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act (IRPA).
- CANPASS RABC permit holders entering at a CBSA office open for business will not be exempted from the normal examination process.
- Dependents travelling separately must have a copy of the CANPASS RABC permit in their possession.
- All firearms must be registered and presented to the CBSA at a port of entry prior to being brought into Canada. Forms are available at 1-800-731-4000, at www.cfc-ccaf.gc.ca or at any CBSA office. If you have any questions about importing a firearm into Canada, please check our Web site at www.cbsa-asfc.gc.ca or call the CBSA office nearest you.
- CANPASS RABC permit holders, who are importing goods that will remain in Canada, or who are importing goods over their personal exemption entitlement, must contact a CBSA office prior to departing from the United States and provide a full description and value of all such goods. A border services officer will issue a reference number to the CANPASS RABC permit holders and will advise them of the steps they must follow when they arrive in Canada.
